Trust Aviva Solutions to deliver.

Successful Partnerships Built on Trust

Two Certification Programs

Aviva Solutions Partner Certification:

This certification program is designed to give Distributors, Resellers, VARs, OEMs and Systems Integrators the technical knowledge to sell Aviva Solutions' products. To obtain Aviva Solutions Partner Certification, our professional trainers will lead you through a two-day course that will introduce you to the Aviva Solutions secure host access product line and will train you on the features and functionality of the solutions offered. Partner training will also include an overview of the installation, configuration, operation, troubleshooting and maintenance of Aviva Solutions' products.

Aviva Solutions Developer Certification:

Aviva Solutions will train Developers and Systems Integrators on the suite of Aviva Solutions' products. You will be trained to use Aviva Solutions' application integration tools. Aviva Solutions will assist you with system architecture, development environments, and in developing and integrating applications using products from Aviva Solutions.

To obtain Developer Certification, our three-day training course will provide you with hands-on instruction in a variety of areas:

- Installation of Aviva Solutions products
- Configuration
- Operation
- Hands-on application development basics
- Troubleshooting and maintenance to solve customer issues
- Developing applications using Aviva Solutions' products
- Developing Web-based applications
- Product features and functionality

Customized Training Available:

Please contact Aviva Solutions to learn more about how we can tailor our training courses to meet your needs.

Benefits of Certification

Benefit from the experience of professionals

After successful completion of Aviva Solutions' training course, you will be recognized as a certified Aviva Solutions partner.

Why should I become a Certified Aviva Solutions Partner or Developer?

Certified Aviva Solutions partners will receive preferential pricing and will be sent this "Aviva Certified Partner" logo for your marketing purposes. Training manuals will also be made available for your reference.

Aviva Solutions Certification is based on an approved training infrastructure that includes technical training to successfully configure, implement and support Aviva Solutions' products. The certification process is an effective way for partners to learn everything they need to start helping their customers see rapid business results. We can accommodate your training needs whether onsite at your location or at Aviva Solutions' own training facility.
